

About Me

Denisse is an experienced professional in customer care and business development, recognized for her strong communication, adaptability, and problem-solving skills. She is dedicated to delivering high-quality results through attention to detail, reliability, and a customer-focused approach. Proficient in outbound and email outreach tools as well as data management, she thrives in fast-paced environments while building strong client relationships and driving measurable success.